CHAMPION CLARK DEFEATS WEBB

Springfield Player Superior To Philadelphia in Tournament Game and Wins Three Van Winkle Games Straight—Thomson Needs One More For Second Medal—Williamson and Spellman Had Long Game—Band Concert and Mayor Murphy at Grounds Tonight.

Thursday's fair weather gave fresh impetus to the play in the National Amateur association's annual tournament, and the games in number, interest and importance reached the high-water mark of the week thus far. Today, however, the climax of the tournament will be reached, for one more game may possibly decide the possession of each of the two Van Winkle medals, and by this evening the race for the championship should be pretty well narrowed down. By winning three games straight from H. T. Webb, Champion Eddie Clark needs only one more victory to give him his medal, while Dr. H. S. Thomson requires but a portion of a game now to enable him to successfully defend the coveted prize against Louie Stockwell.

In the regular tournament games a number of the strongest competitors for first place met with defeat on Thursday, and this of course diminishes to a great extent their chances for the championship honor.

Champion Clark Defeats Webb

Eddie Clark of Springfield showed championship strength on Thursday afternoon by defeating Horace T. Webb of the Philadelphia club, who was regarded as one of his most formidable opponents. In the morning he won handsily from W. L. Robinson, and the present champion is now the only man in the first division with a clean score of games.

Against Webb, Clark displayed the same unerring eye and excellent judgment that have always marked his play. He was careful, steady, and with care and skill, but featured with no plays of spectacular nature. Webb had the balls frequently, but in spite of his steady, careful play, he was unable to negotiate any long runs. On the other hand, the champion made spurs and he ran the game out with Webb far behind, with one ball five arches and the other still at four. With his second ball coming home, Clark tried for the center and threw three before he got his ball by. Then he ran out quickly. Loose play marked the opening of the game with Robinson, but Clark stooded down in splendid form. His steady, accurate shooting and his nicely placed caroms form a combination that again make him by far the most likely contender for the championship.

Kirk Contributed Remarkable Shot.

Ex-Champion J. C. Kirk contributed one of the real features of the day by a remarkable shot which won him his game with H. T. Webb. Kirk was in the cage, and in trying for the set up his ball was wired as a result of the split. He shot to the opposite bank for a carom, and the ball came back and just missing the ball that was almost in front of the cage, his carom went safely through. It was a rare shot, and the ex-president drew forthrightly on it. Webb was taken back by the play and Kirk ran out his balls. Mr. Kirk sprang another surprise on Thursday, when he met Felton, the Philadelphia player, who had been putting up stiff-edged ball up to yesterday, and outplayed him with ease. It was the third successive year that Kirk had beaten Felton, and he seemed to do it again today, that he himself continues to get a yearly trimming by Jacobus.

Charles G. Williams Enters.

The latest entrant for the tournament came Thursday morning in the person of Charles G. Williams of Washington, ex-champion and ex-president of the association. In his opening game Mr. Williams showed the results of his last year's preliminary practice, and he went down before Turner of California and Veasey of Wilmington, although he took his game with Jacobus. Mr. Williams had not a mail in his hands since last Labor day.

Harold Clark had good room at his command when he defeated Felton, and he today won a game with Jacobus. Whitaker showed himself up to first division standards by taking two games—Turner and from Williams.

Long Session in Second Division.

In the second division L. C. Williamson still stands without a rival, although he met his first defeat Thursday at the hands of Dr. H. S. Thomson. Thomson featured in this game with a number of long shots, at which he is especially proficient, and his shot from a wide angle through the center arch was a bit of work that undoubtedly won him the game. Williamson and Spellman of Willimantic were the contestants in the longest game of the tournament. Thomson started out at 11 o'clock, took intermission enough for dinner, and then went back on the court and played until both were pretty well tired out. They ended their session at 3:30, and Williamson won by a small margin, Spellman having all but four arches. The center arch gave the players much trouble, being a trifle too wide, so that the balls in each rolled out between a number of times. Then when Williamson made the cage, going back he took along Spellman's clip instead of his own. He discovered it before Spellman did, and the referee decided that he should start back at the cage. After their interesting, even though somewhat tedious, game, Williamson decided to rest the remainder of the day.

The games on Thursday were as follows:

First Division.

H. T. Webb beat Charles Jacobus, Harold Clark beat Charles Jacobus, J. C. Kirk beat Dr. H. S. Veasey, C. G. Williams beat Charles Jacobus, L. E. Whitaker beat W. L. Robinson, Dr. H. S. Thomson beat L. C. Williamson, Eddie Clark beat H. T. Webb, Dr. B. R. Veasey beat C. G. Williams, J. C. Kirk beat I. F. Felton, Fred Millard beat F. P. Fenlon, L. E. Whitaker beat F. C. Turner, E. Clark beat W. L. Robinson, J. C. Kirk beat H. T. Webb, F. C. Turner beat Dr. B. R. Veasey, W. L. Robinson beat F. C. Turner.

Second Division.

W. C. Rodman beat W. P. Sullivan, Louie Stockwell beat W. C. Rodman, F. M. Thompson beat L. Stockwell.

Save Your Hair

Don't Use Preparations Containing Poisonous Sugar of Lead or Sulphur.

Even if you have healthy hair you ought to use a little PARISIAN Sage once a week as a hair dressing. It keeps the hair healthy, prevents scalp itch, falling hair and dandruff, and—baldness.

But be sure you get PARISIAN Sage. There are many imitations. The girl with Auburn hair is on every car and about the PARISIAN Sage.

It banishes dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch, and imparts to the hair a brilliancy and lustre that all women, as well as men, love so dearly. PARISIAN Sage is a dainty perfume and refreshing hair dressing. It's the best hair tonic you can buy. Large bottle 50 cents at The Lee & Osgood Co. and dealers everywhere.

here Thursday from that city and will pass the rest of the week here as on-lookers.

Thursday evening's fine weather and the interesting Van Winkle play brought out a good number of visitors and it is hoped by the committee that the special attractions tonight will be enjoyed by as many as possible who can take this opportunity of showing their interest in roque in Norwich.

TUCKERBUNG OUTING

AT THE DRAWBRIDGE.

Seventy-two Members and Friends Enjoyed the Annual Occasion.

Seventy-two members of the Tuckerbung association and friends enjoyed their annual outing on Thursday at the clubhouse on Poqueanuck cove, near the drawbridge, and the day was pleasantly passed by all who attended. The company gathered in the forenoon, making the trip by trolley, train and automobile.

A buffet lunch was served from 1 to 2 o'clock and at 4 o'clock the bake was enjoyed. The menu was as follows:

Clam Chowder.
Stuffed Baked.
Clam Fritters.
Small Sausage.
Spiced Chicken.
White and Sweet Potatoes.
Corn on Cob.
Cucumbers.
Tomatoes.
Long Clams.
Watermelon.

The bake was served by Frank Wright of the Auditorium Hotel and was a fine success. Mr. Wright has been in charge of this part of the programme on these occasions for
